1) Song-Do International City

- In InCheon Metropolitan(near by SEOUL)

- Very close to Incheon Int'l Airport(15 min. by car)

(The west part of Incheon)

- Song-Do, a Mecca for international business and high-tech industry, the core of the Incheon free economic zone(IFEZ), Incheon has laid the administrative and institutional foundation for a gateway to Northeast Asia. This will enable South Korea to become one of top four distribution hubs in the world, joining Hong Kong, Singapore, and the Netherlands. A distinctive set of institutions will be applied to the IFEZ in order to create an environment that is friendly to foreign businesses. The IFEZ will be a self-sufficient district that is fully equipped with facilities with a wide range of functions, including manufacturing plants, an international airport, a harbor, an international distribution center, a global business complex, educational institutions and residential districts. In addition, the IFEZ will provide diverse administrative services to ensure a friendly living environment for foreign residents, including English translation, aid with civil petitions, and the introduction of foreign educational institutions, hospitals and pharmacies.

5. More Information of Location

1) Location

Song-Do is located in the mid-west of the Korea peninsula, abutting the Yellow Sea. Located 28 km from the nation's capital, Seoul, Song-Do lies at 126° 37' east longitude and 37° 28' north latitude, the same latitude as San Francisco, Washington, and Madrid.

2) Climate

The Incheon area has a relatively dry climate, and is affected greatly by seasonal winds. Northwestern winds hit the region in winter, while southwesterly winds prevail in the summer. The average annual temperature is around 11.4°C, with average temperatures around minus 3.1°C during the month of January and 24.9°C during the month of August. The temperature span over the year is 28°C.

3) Area and Population

Incheon was promoted to a city under direct government supervision on July 1, 1981. On January 1st of 1989, Gyeyang-myeon of Gimpo-gun and other districts of Gyeonggi-do Province, including Yeongjong-myeon and Yongyu-myeon of Ongjin-gun, were merged into the city.

Incheon was then changed to a metropolitan city on January 1, 1995. On the following March 1, the entire area of Ganghwa-gun and Ongjin-gun as well as Geomdan-myeon of Gimpo-gun was added to Incheon Metropolitan City.

The current administrative unit covers a total area of 986.45km², or 0.98% of South Korea. It is comprised of eight districts, two counties, and 140 smaller units, including eup, myeon, and dong.

As of September 2005, the city has a total population of 2,628,000, with more than 872,000 households. Incheon is rapidly developing into the third largest city in Korea, following Seoul and Busan, the first and the second largest, respectively.
